

Single collection of recyclables

The yellow bin and the orange box are now one

Since 2013 there has been a single recycling bin. You will no longer have to distinguish between yellow and orange. Packaging and other articles made of plastic, metal or composite materials can now be disposed of together. Yellow sacks will also be treated as recycling sacks.

Get involved: separate your waste properly.
For more recycling in Berlin. Information:
www.wertstofftonne-berlin.de

Telephone:
030 7592-4900

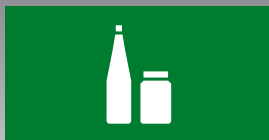

Telefon:
030 351 82 351

Recyclable

packaging and other items of:
Plastic
Metal Composite

Please no electrical appliances, energy saving lamps, batteries, textiles, media and wood!

Glass

e.g.:
Beverage bottles
Oil and vinegar bottles
Jars
Jam jars
Jars of baby food

Please separate white and coloured glass!

Paper / Cardboard

e.g.: Newspapers
Journals
Brochures
Cartons
Books

Please fold cartons flat or tear up!

Organic waste

e.g.:
Fruit and vegetable scraps
Leftovers (incl. cooked food)
Tea and coffee filters
Flowers
Garden waste

Wrap well in newspaper or paper towels. Do not use plastic bags!

Household waste

e.g.: Toiletries
Dust bags
Animal litter
Nappies
Wall paper

Please do not place building waste or contaminants in or near the bin!

Separate your waste properly and make an active contribution to environmental protection.
Use our recycling depots and the bulky waste collection service.

Telephone:
030 7592-4900

Telefon:
030 351 82 351